ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Ulysses Press is an independent publishing house based in Brooklyn, New York, and Berkeley, California.

Mark Rogers is a San Francisco pet photographer with the uncanny ability to capture the personalities and quirks of his animal subjects. He finds cats particularly fascinating and is pretty sure the internet was invented to distribute amusing videos of them. Mark's eye-catching, often humorous images of felines, dogs, and other animals appear often in national advertising campaigns and print publications. He's also previously published several other books, including Thanks for Picking Up My Poop: Everyday Gratitude from Dogs and Canines of San Francisco.

Consistently selected as one of the Bay Area's top pet photographers, Mark is highly sought by private clients to work with their pets and donates much of his time to animal welfare and rescue groups.

Mark lives with his wife, Anne, his dog, Leeloo, and their cat, the diabolical Jimmy Chew (AKA James), who knows how to annoy each of them and does so frequently. James has reviewed and repeatedly edited sections of this book while sitting on Mark's keyboard.

Living cyclically is nothing new; just as nature is designed by cycles of high and low, push and pull, work and rest, so too are the bodies of half the people on Earth. However, modern society ignores and suppresses these natural hormonal fluctuations, leaving menstruators burned out and frustrated as they repress and combat their biology. By introducing the four phases of the menstrual cycle in an approachable way, The Cycle Syncing Handbook provides a straightforward guide on how to optimize every aspect of your life, including:

- › Creativity and productivity
- › Mobility and exercise habits
- › Nutrition
- › Romantic and platonic relationships
- › And more!

Written by an expertly trained doula and fertility awareness educator, this easy-to-follow yet informative handbook will empower you and teach you everything you need to master your menstrual cycle!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Angie Marie is a fertility awareness educator with an adventurous edge. After a life-threatening experience with birth control convinced her to explore her reproductive options, she dove headfirst into learning all she could about pregnancy, birth, and periods. After training to be a doula and then a fertility educator, Angie combined her fascination with science and a relentless creative itch to come up with resources that help menstruators make their period their superpower. An avid mountain climber and ultrarunner, Angie finds her home in the Columbia River Gorge in Washington. No matter where she's exploring, she feels her best when she's tuning into her body's wisdom. The era from the end of the Civil War to the beginning of World War II was an evolving time for murderers, thieves, gangsters, and more. Train robberies, presidential assassinations, high-profile heists, and serial murders are just a selection of what occurred between the 1860s and the 1930s. Between Two Wars: A True Crime Collection includes a mix of both familiar and less-infamous cases. Tour the carnage of 1880s Chicago as H. H. Holmes builds his Murder Castle; learn about the significance of the less famous presidential assassination of the 1800s—of President James Garfield; and find out why the theft of the Mona Lisa made the piece the famous work of art it is today. The full list of cases include:

- ▶ (1866) The Reno brothers and the first train robbery in America
- ▶ (1878) George Leslie, a high society bank robber
- ▶ (1881) Assassination of President James Garfield
- ▶ (1893) H. H. Holmes Murder Castle and the Columbian Exposition
- ▶ (1890s–1907) John “Mushmouth” Johnson, the “Negro Gambling King of Chicago”
- ▶ (1911) The theft of Leonardo da Vinci’s Mona Lisa
- ▶ (1926) Disappearance of Agatha Christie
- ▶ (1933) Kansas City Massacre
- ▶ (1938) Rumrich Nazi Spy Case

Myths of the Underworld is a vibrant collection of ten retellings of forbidden love, acts of vengeance, and naive attractions. Modernized for today's reader, these diverse stories span time and space. But while the cultures and traditions are varied, the themes woven throughout these tales reveal how the struggle to understand and accept death and all that comes with it is one that is quintessentially human. The ten different stories include:

- › Hades and Persephone, the classic myth from Ancient Greece
- › Kali, the Indian goddess (and wife of Shiva), known for her fierceness on the battlefield
- › Anubis, the ancient Egyptian god of the underworld
- › Mictlantecuhtli and Mictecacihuatl, the lovers who ruled the Aztec underworld
- › The Shinigami, Japanese spirits of the underworld
- › Maman Brigitte, the Haitian intermediary of death
- › Gamab, the Namibian god of fate who gifted rain to mankind
- › Hel, the Norse overseer of the underworld
- › Sedna, the Inuit goddess of the sea and the underworld
- › The Sand Hills, the home of the dead for the Blackfeet Nation

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lindsay Christinee grew up in the suburbs of Pennsylvania as the only twelve year old on her block excited to read historical biographies. Her love of history parlayed into fashion, and she spent years working in NYC's fashion industry before moving to Bangkok, where she began her writing career. After spending years as a lifestyle journalist and stylist in Australia, Lindsay moved back to the US, settling into Philadelphia's historic district. She has written for numerous publications around the world and even started her own sustainable lifestyle site, The Wellness Feed. Myths of the Underworld is her debut book.

Coffee has its own kind of magic—the kind that wakes you up and gets you moving, even when you’d rather stay snug in bed. The kind that helps you reconnect with old friends or spark a new romance. It’s the kind of magic that makes you wait in line for hours for a certain latte or mocha that feels both original and familiar.

In Coffee Magic for the Modern Witch, we’ll be spilling the coffee beans on the magical properties of coffee and all its many forms, from the protective power of espresso to the loving quality of mocha. Inside you’ll also find original recipes, spells, and rituals that will add a bit of coffee magic to your life, including:

- › The “I Love Me a Latte” brew to perk up your self-love
- › The “Are You Seer-ing This?” coffee scrying ritual to divine the future
- › The “Cleans Me in Coffee” coffee bath recipe to release negativity
- › And so much more!

Coffee Magic for the Modern Witch is perfect for novice witches, coffee snobs, and herbalists who want to uncover the magic deep within each coffee bean.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Elsie Wild is a writer and witch haunting the Adirondack Mountains of Upstate New York. She is the author of Herbal Tea Magic for the Modern Witch and Herbal Tea Magic for the Modern Witch Oracle Deck. A lifelong student of divination, Wild practices herbalism, astrology, numerology, and tarot, writing about them for various publications. When not writing, Wild is drinking coffee and making terrible puns.

Choosing a tarot deck that is just right can be a difficult endeavor. Each deck has its own unique artwork, symbolism, and theme, but if it's not the right vibe for you, your divination practices could be greatly affected.

DIY Tarot allows you to take matters into your own hands. What does The Emperor card or The Lovers card look like to you? Perhaps you view the suit of Wands as a stack of books and the suit of Cups as blooming flowers collecting rainwater. Each card has an illustrated backside, simple border, and label in the traditional Rider-Waite system, but you'll have to take it from there. The possibilities are endless with these 78 blank tarot cards just waiting for you to create a one-of-a-kind deck.

Included in this deck is a helpful companion guidebook full of details on the Rider-Waite archetypes and ideas on how to best use your deck.

The Portent Tarot is a deck of darkness and revelation. It offers space to explore beneath the currents of our subconscious and bring to light the things we need to focus on now. It is a liminal home where you can let your guard down and travel within the expanse of an inner universe. It sometimes has a sharp tongue, speaking the hidden things we wish to avoid, but with that comes our strength and growth.

The cards are presented without titles to emphasize their line-drawn symbols. This deck welcomes everyone, beginners and advanced readers alike, but relies on knowledge of the classic Rider-Waite-Smith system. Included in the box is a companion guide that can provide additional guidance. The Portent Tarot can also make an excellent companion deck to enhance readings with more traditional cards.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Linzi Silverman is an intuitive healer, artist, and creator. Through their business, Eye of Astro, they share their gifts of deck making, card reading, energy work, meditation, yoga, teaching, and more. They believe that we all possess a magic—a power—and it is their aim to help us each connect to this part of ourselves. They can be found connecting to their intuition, spending time in nature, cooking loving meals, as well as cultivating art, movement, and mindfulness. Their business is named after their sweet familiar, Astro Baby Kitty-Dog Silverman, who passed away in October 2022. In addition to The Portent Tarot, Linzi has published the tarot deck The Intuitive Night Goddess Tarot, with upcoming projects like The Intuitive Night Animal Oracle, The Ghost Oracle, and more. You can connect with them for individual sessions and workshops at EyeofAstro.com.

Every planet except Earth goes into retrograde at some point, and each planet has its own bundle of joys and pain points that come with it. The Retrograde Guidebook aims to take the mystery out of planetary retrogrades, providing an overview of what retrograde means astrologically and its basic principles. It offers a breakdown of every planetary retrograde's function and effects—and why three main celestial bodies, the Earth, sun, and moon, don't ever go into retrograde.

You'll also learn how planetary retrogrades will affect you as an individual, tips on coping with resulting effects, and how to maximize the benefits so the planets work on your behalf to improve your life.

The Retrograde Guidebook includes calendars through 2030. These calendars include the dates each planet goes into and out of retrograde, and the astrological signs each planet is leaving and entering. Don't get caught unawares—with all the information this guidebook arms you with, you'll never fear a retrograde again!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

At birth, we are the fullest and most vibrant expressions of ourselves. Some of us, however, lose this radiance due to one or more tragic life circumstances that robbed us of a beautiful childhood, whether it be the loss of a parent, emotional neglect, or even an abusive upbringing. As adults, we're left stumbling through life, yearning for even a taste of that childhood wonder as we ask ourselves, "How the hell did I get here?"

Fortunately, there are better ways to regain our light without chasing after the love we never received or reliving our most painful memories. A Woman's Guide to Inner Child Healing utilizes a variety of insightful journal prompts, worksheets, and tips that will teach you how to:

- Connect with your younger self
- Identify your 4 Core Wounds
- Reparent your inner child
- Gain closure and healing
- And more!

Permanently escape your cycle of emotional turmoil using a variety of intuitive exercises and informative guides expertly crafted by an experienced registered psychotherapist and relationship coach!

Break has come and school is out. Keeping your kids entertained at home without screens may seem difficult, but it doesn't have to be. Why not make your break a "DIY summer" with The Little Book of Plastic Lace Crafts? This step-by-step guide to creating lanyards, key chains, bracelets, and other crafts with plastic lace features full-color diagrams and easy-to-follow text. It can be used at any proficiency level, starting off with basic stitching techniques before moving on to more advanced methods in order to teach you how to:

- ▶ Create a standard lanyard
- ▶ Integrate practical and creative techniques
- ▶ Incorporate new and playful ideas
- ▶ And more!

Written and illustrated by a highly experienced lanyard artist, The Little Book of Plastic Lace Crafts is screen-free summertime entertainment that the whole family can enjoy!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

For over eight years, Yonatan Setbon has maintained a YouTube channel dedicated to lanyards. After mastering the content available on the internet, he began to explore and develop his own new techniques, both practical and creative. In 2008, when Yonatan was sixteen, his art was showcased on the website of expert crafter BoondoggleMan. On Yonatan's YouTube channel (www.youtube.com/@1anya7d), you can find the basics, as well as advanced tutorials with complete instructions for creating fun forms such as a Pikachu, a snake, and a dragon (that took 72 hours to make!). During the COVID-19 pandemic, Yonatan added several new artistic approaches to his repertoire, reflecting modern and more abstract styles.
