

GROWTH MINDSET

The belief that intelligence and other qualities, abilities, and talents can be improved with effort, learning, and dedication over time.

FIXED MINDSET

The belief that intelligence and other qualities, abilities, and talents are fixed traits that cannot be significantly developed.